Text: How to Read Literature Like a Professor by Thomas Foster

Annotations

Directions: Read Chapters 1-12 of the book, making sure to annotate as you go. Then complete the following table, writing down 2 tips from the book (you can quote or summarize the information to be more concise) and how to apply those tips into a literary text, which can be a novel, short story, poem, film, tv show, etc (you can also come up with a hypothetical scenario if you cannot think of you anything you have read or seen for which this tip can apply). Please see my sample below.

Chapter	Tips – 2 quotes/summaries per chapter	Real-world application – Write down 1 example based on your prior reading or viewing (film, tv show)
1: Every Trip is a Quest	Tip 1: “The real reason for a quest is always self-knowledge.”  Tip 2:	In The Odyssey , Odysseus’ quest is simply to go home but in the process, he learns about the high price of pride and arrogance and the failings of his own leadership.
